

Read...It's a Need You Can Feed!

March is Reading Month 2022

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday – Dr. Seuss Days	Thursday	Friday – Dr. Seuss Days
Feb. 28 – Set an at home reading goal	March 1 – read a joke book today and tell one to a friend	March 2 – Hat Day (500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins) Bring a hat to school	March 3 – DEAR (Drop Everything and Read) in our classroom	March 4 – Wear red and white like Dr. Seuss' Cat in the Hat
March 7 – Heifer/llama/alpaca week	March 8 – Read a poem and share with a friend	March 9 – Places shirt (Oh the places you will go) Wear a shirt with a place name on it	March 10 – DEAR with another class	March 11 – Wear black and white like many cows do
March 14 – Chicks week	March 15 – Read a book about an animal today. Read with a stuffed animal friend. Bring ONE stuffed animal friend to school (must be smaller than your backpack)	March 16 – Animal shirt (If I Ran the Zoo) Wear a shirt with an animal on it	March 17 – DEAR in an unusual place around the school	March 18 – Wear yellow like a little chick
March 21 – Sheep/goats week	March 22 – Read a nonfiction book today with a flashlight from home (in case the sheep get lost and you have to look for them) ☺	March 23 – PJ Day (I Can Read with My Eyes Wide Shut/The Sleep Book)	March 24 – DEAR in the cafeteria	March 25 – Bowling Trip! Wear your St. Mary Spirit Wear